

Vis Major

Brightwood

Careless we run into ocean waves
Moments alive and visions of your face
We were fearless, we were brave
We were drifting
Away.

Try and remember how it used to be
Were we alive in this distant dream?
Take my hand hold on tight
We can go back tonight

Graciously walking through fields of gold
As angels' wings were waiting to unfold
We were fearless, we were brave
You were taken
Away.

Time froze here.
As i watched you
As I lost you
I exhale
As I let you
I let you

Try and remember how it used to be
Were we alive in this distant dream?
Take my hand hold on tight
We can go back tonight

Try and remember how it used to be
Were we alive in this distant dream?
Take my hand hold on tight
We can go back tonight
