

Sleep with One Eye Open

Bring Me the Horizon

Fuck you!
You took what you wanted and left, like locusts.
Everything I gave to you, everything that we've been through.
You bled me dry and then left, like leeches.
Go, you got what you could now leave, like vultures!

Ripped apart in minutes what was built in seven years
The ink scarred on your back may as well of disappeared.
For as long as I remember, you sold everything you owned,
but now you sold our friendship, you're on your fucking own!

Sleep with one eye open (because)
Sleep with one eye open

'Cause
If I had it my way I'd slit your throat with the knife you left in my back.
All the shame, all this guilt, all this regret, that's me!
I'm inside of you.
I'm inside of you and this is your world,
fucking falling apart mate, from the inside out.
Everything will fall at your feet - you got hell to pay!

And you better fucking bow down to me!
You better beg for mercy!
Get on your fucking knees and cry me a fucking river!

Sleep with one eye open
Sleep with one eye open
Sleep with one eye open

Best friends means forever cunt!
