

Summer Forgive Me

British India

Summer forgive me it was just the other day,
The look on your face was a thousand miles away,
It's only midnight and I'm talking to your back,
I love you way too much to just give up like that.

You know I'm never what I say, what I say
You're disappointed but it has to be that way,
I'm gonna wait until it's only you and I,
And if I get caught I'll deny, deny, deny.

Breathe in the night
You can call me anything you like,
Stupid but true,
I'd still do anything for you.

Summer forgive me
I'll become the person I was meant to be,
There's no one here but you and I.
Summer forgive me
I refuse to become just a memory,
We're gonna make it out alive.

I'm always rushing and I'd never settle down,
Always inventing different ways to let you down,
I couldn't face you when you're looking out into
And when it all goes wrong I'll blame it all on you.

Breathe in the night
You can call me anything you like,
Stupid but true,
I'd still do anything for you.

Summer forgive me
I'll become the person I was meant to be,
There's no one here but you and I.
Summer forgive me
I refuse to become just a memory,
We're gonna make it out alive.

I'll always be the answer that you didn't need
I'll always be that child tugging at your sleeve,
I'll be on every photo that you tear in half,
I'll always be that joke that used to make you laugh,

Summer forgive me it was just the other day,
The look on your face was a thousand miles away,
It's after midnight and I'm looking at your back,
I love you way too much to just give up like that.

Summer forgive me
I'll become the person I was meant to be,
There's no one here but you and I.
Summer forgive me
I refuse to become just a memory,
We're gonna make it out alive.
