They couldn't believe I did it
But I was so committed
My life was so restricted for you
I just dove inside it blind
Couldn't see what swam inside
Thought that'd be romantic for you

Exchanged my vows
And said it all warned my legs 'let's prepare to fall'
Even, screaming 'did it' for you
(Remember it?)

My friends said you would play me But I just said they're crazy While I was crying frantic Was it true?

Why should I be sad?
Heaven knows
From the stupid freaking things that you do
(Stupid freaking things)
Or should I get bad or sad
Who knows?
Just take it all
As a sign that we're through
Goodbye

It's time for me to move along
(Goodbye)
It's time for me to get it on (OK)
I'm tired of singing sad songs
(All right)
It's time for me
(Britney, let's go)

I sent you to Vegas
With a pocket full of paper
And with no ultimatiums on you
I thought what could separate us
But it just seemed like Vegas
Only brought the playa out of you
(Hey baby, what's your name?)

Lavish homes and fancy cars
Even got the drop Ferrari
Filled up our garage for you
Made your choice with all the teams
People and Us Magazines
Tell me who'd I do that for, who?

Why should I be sad?
Heaven knows
From the stupid freaking things that you do
(Stupid freaking things)
Or should I get bad or sad

Who knows? Just take it all As a sign that we're through Goodbye It's time for me to move along (Goodbye) It's time for me to get it on I'm tired of singing sad songs (All right) It's time for me (Britney, let's go) It's time for me to move along (Goodbye) It's time for me to get it on I'm tired of singing sad songs (All right) It's time for me (Britney, let's go) And don't you worry About our angels (All the magazines trying to intervene saying things in the gossip section) They'll get good guidance And be trained well Don't worry I'll keep a little secret When I ask this question Why should I be sad? Heaven knows From the stupid freaking things that you do (Stupid freaking things) Why should I get back the sack? Who knows? Just take it all As a sign that we're through Goodbye It's time for me to move along (Goodbye) It's time for me to get it on I'm tired of singing sad songs (All right) It's time for me (Britney, let's go) It's time for me to move along (Goodbye) It's time for me to get it on I'm tired of singing sad songs (All right) It's time for me (Britney, let's go)

Yeah
