

Midnight Moses

Britny Fox

Hey, hey, hey, hey

Underneath the green veranda
Singin' love songs for mad Maranda

They call me the midnight Moses
Everything I touch is coming up roses

Hey, hey, hey, hey

Tell me where I'm going
I got no way of knowin'
I wish I was a forest ranger
Danger, danger, danger

Hey, hey, hey, hey

I had an afternoon fever
And when I flew out to Geneva
I just took me a notion
To fly right across the ocean
