No-One Survives

Broken Bones

They push the button, we close our eyes
4 minute warning, now it's goodbye
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
The innocent burn in the winds of fire
No one survives
Instant tan, we turn to ash
Shadows remain after the blast
Cities fall, the innocent die
Under the blood red sky
Push the button, we close our eyes
4 minute warning, now it's goodbye
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
The innocent burn in the winds of fire
