

Colorful Mind

Broken Iris

Picture perfect mutilation;
Bright to black with no hesitation.
All the right shades on the wrong page,
Make up this colorful mind,
This colorful mind of mine.

Soothing brush strokes, scraping paint.
Loosen your grip before it all fades.
Vibrant rays, eclipsed by the haze,
Make up your colorful mind
Much less colorful

Will this be another day of night in here?
The knife's not sharp enough to fear.
If I ever see you in white
Try to stay.
The room's not lighted for a gray.

Will this be another day and night
If I ever see you in white?

If I ever see you in white
Try to stay.
The room's not light for a gray.

Make up this colorful mind.
