I've been writing this letter For a couple of months now And right now What I wanna do Is I wanna express this letter To you It goes like this Your eyes They flow From all the pain I caused I lost my cause I only broke your heart Alone I cry I tried so hard to break you I love you I hate you Why wont you let me go? I, I feel the raindrops fall These tears wont take you away, I'm sorry I am I, I hear the thunder scream It's screaming out for me, I'm sorry I am The rain it drips the rain drops dripping (8x) The rain drops down Your eyes They flow From all the pain I caused I lost my cause I only broke your heart Alone I cry I tried so hard to break you I love you I hate you Why wont you let me go? The rain will follow me, I feel like I can't breath, I'm sorry I fell asleep again, when will this tempest end, I'm sorry I am The rain it drips the rain drops dripping (8x) Your eyes They flow From all the pain I caused I lost my cause I only broke your heart Alone I cry I tried so hard to break you I love you I hate you Why wont you let me go?

- I, I dreamt that you were here, lying next to me, I'm sorry I am $\,$
- I, I finally realized that I fucked up your life, So I'm sorry I am $\,$

The rain it drips the rain drops dripping (8x)

Your eyes
They flow
From all the pain I caused
I lost my cause
I only broke your heart
Alone I cry
I tried so hard to break you
I love you
I hate you
Why wont you let me go?

I'd die tonight
If only you were here
I'd tell you I'm sorry
I'd fucking disappear

Betrayed,
You hate me
You look so pretty now
Without me
Alone
The tears come crashing down.
