

Strawberry Hill

Bronze Radio Return

Get your thrills on strawberry hill
In all your worlds the berries will fill
It'll make your pain taste sweeter
It's when the time stands still, it'll lean on your will Let the juices soak the memories to kill
And we'll drink it by the liter

And nobody smiles, that we laugh so hard
Nobody cries, or hides their scars
We just fall so far...
You're so right, so give
No I don't think I'm coming down
It's alright to give
Now eat this fruit from the ground
It's so right, so give
Yeah see what I have found
Strawberry hill, on strawberry hill
Where nothing matters

Fill your glass, rest your feet
Empty cheers and a great defeat
It's a party and it's on repeat
No one's here on their own free will
Something chased them up this hill
And we won't come down till we forget what's below

Nobody smiles, that we laugh so hard
Nobody cries or hides their scars
We just fall so far...
You're so right, so give
No I don't think I'm coming down
It's alright to give
Now eat this fruit from the ground
It's so right, so give
Yeah see what I have found
Strawberry hill, on strawberry hill
Where nothing matters
