A Door That Is Open

Brook Benton

A Door that is open, a heart that is true A love that will last for all time These things I ask for may seem rather small But to me they'll become a shrine Two arms that are open to welcome me home At the end of a weary day A heart that is true to cherish and love And to live forever that way I'll love you, my darling, for all I'm worth For now I have found that it's true The door that opens to heaven on earth Can only be opened by you.

The door that opens to heaven on earth Can only be opened by you.
