

Laugh Til I Cry

Brooke Valentine

[Verse 1:]

Right from the start hell yeah
You were the one even without a kiss you were so much fun
Hurted me all the time but yet it felt so good
Knock me down but my love still stood

[Hook:]

You didn't wanna hurt me but you still did
Couldn't see behind my back you split wrapped up in love I couldn't control it guess now i see
Just what it meant I didn't know what real love was all the hits you gave should had been hugs

[Chorus:]

I laughed till I cried
I seem so happy on the outside
I lied, how was I to know it at that time I was so busy laughing now I'm crying

[Verse 2:]

And I can't deny some times were good
I wouldn't save myself if I could
Blind and naive I was a fool and lucky me I ran into you

[Hook:]

I ask you if you love me you say uh-uh wanna take me out you say uh-uh still had a way of Getting to me hold me tight and I forget everything still to this day I think of you, you taught me
To see through the lies and get to the truth.

[Chorus:]

I laughed till I cried I seem so happy on the outside I cried how was I to know if at that
Time so busy laughing now I'm crying.

[Bridge 2x:]

The laughter keeps going and my hearts not showing it's lies (it's lies) I wish I Could show you how many times I cried.
