

I Quit

Bros

Most of my friends were strangers when I met them Familiarity breeds contempt.

Well

I'm better alone than in company

So get out and stay out of my life.

I'm at the point

I'm at the point where I quit.

I've had enough

I've had it right up to here now

I'm taking a break

well

I quit

yeah

I said I quit

yeah!

With this view and that new opinion when I see them

I don't need another pain in the neck.

Well

nobody listens to losers

So when you're surrounded by fools

Who needs another

who needs another clever dick.

I've had enough

I've had it right up to here now

I'm taking a break

I quit.

I've had it right up to here now

I'm taking a break

I quit

I quit.

I quit

yeah

I've had enough
