

Love To Hate You

Bros

You've a head too big for your body and a mouth too wide for your face an ego as big as a mountain and in those clothes you look a disgrace.

Girlfriends love to hate you and you relish all their spite now your family's disowned you and you certainly know wrong from right.

Well I love to hate you oh I'd love to hate you love to hate you, oh yeah ooh I'd hate to love you but I just can't help myself loving you, I can't help myself

How comes you have this power when you're only five foot four surely you come from this world yet men come flocking to your door

You gotta a certain way of sitting a body language of your own something like a magnet please leave me leave me alone

Well I love to hate you

You drive people crazy with one look of those eyes
