Can I Go With You

Bruce Cockburn

When you ride out of the shining sky To claim the ones who love you Can I go with you? Can I go with you?

When the angel shouts from the heart of the sun And the living water flows down Can I go with you? Can I go with you?

When the earth and stars melt like ice in the spring And a million voices sing praise Can I go with you? Can I go with you?