

I Don't Mind

Bruce Kulick

For a long, long time
You know I'm gonna be away
It seems it all went by
So fast I wish that I could stay

Do what, you need to
My love, can't feed you
Don't you cry, for yesterday

I don't mind, if you want
To be in my dreams tonight
I'll be fine, if you're gone
When the morning light has come

Something inside me says
I wanna hold you one more time
But that would be selfishness
And though you may not see it now

Your dreams, of me
Like the leaves, you'll see
Soon they'll all blow away

I don't mind, if you want
To be in my dreams tonight
I'll be fine, if you're gone
When the morning light has come

Do what you need to
My love can't feed you
Don't you cry for yesterday

I don't mind, if you want
To be in my dreams tonight
I will be fine, when you're gone
I don't mind, if you find
Someone else to hold you now
And when I'm gone, I know you'll be strong
