Cryptorium

Rising from the crypts below Carcass in partially decomposed Eternal entombment absence of life Awakening the bodies of death Skulls are crawling with worms Odor of rigor mortis Skin is ridden with disease Corpes living in dying flesh Emaciated bodies buried long ago Reanimated by the necromancer Crawling from beneath the earth Fullfilling ancient prophecies Wounds expose the rancid blood Mind intranced insatiable need To take life from the living Into realm of unknown Disturbing sacred burial grounds Revealing the dark remains Remnants of the haunting demise Energing slowly from the crypt Night is dark air is cold Hungry dead take your soul Consumption of flesh living die It is forbidden to stay alive
