

Teen boy

Brutus

Hey hey won't you go with me
She said, hey hey won't you go with me
She said, hey hey won't you go with me right now

Well I was a teenboy walking down the street
Well I saw the girl she's familiar with me
So I simply asked her where she's going to
She said don't know boy just linger well like you

She said, hey hey won't you go with me
She said, hey hey won't you go with me
She said, hey hey won't you go with me right now

And then when I kissed her she said make it good
And I really did it as good as I could
But before we started she said you were bad
And she took a rope and tied me to my bed

She said, hey hey won't you go with me
She said, hey hey won't you go with me
She said, hey hey won't you go with me right now

Oh give it to them right now

She said, hey hey won't you go with me
She said, hey hey won't you go with me
She said, hey hey won't you go with me right now

Well she sat on me and I was like her slave
And I had to ask for every kiss she gave
Well she kissed me slowly and her kiss was rough
And she didn't stop until she had enough

She said, hey hey won't you go with me
She said, hey hey won't you go with me
She said, hey hey won't you go with me right now

Hey hey won't you go with me
She said, hey hey won't you go with me
She said, hey hey won't you go with me right now
Right now, right now, right now
