Fearless

Bryan Adams

It's 3 am and I'm lying here next to you What cha gonna do? Will you tell a story when he asks you where the hell You've been Or will you tell the truth?

I ain't holdin' back I know where I stand You just want to be with you Ya gotta face the fact bay i'm your man I've gotta get it through to you I'm fearless

You don't have to hide you don't have to share half your Life With some other guy Baby we're so strong - and it's been going on so long It's time to make it right - want you to spend the night

I ain't holdin' back - i know where i stand U just want to be with you Ya gotta face the fact - bay i'm your man I've gotta get it through to you I'm fearless
