Could have been a winner, Should have taken me. It was so damn cold I shoulda held ya 'Cause you were shakin' me.

Well, I almost had a question, When she led me home, I spent too much time for one night Bein' alone.

She said you're wastin' time, You're takin' a chance on me. You're wastin' time, You're takin' a chance on me.

Should have got the rambler,
Back seat movie for two.
I spent too much time for one night
Bein' alone with you.

Should have seen her daddy
'Case he said she had to go.
I spent too much time for one night
Bein' all alone.

She said you're wastin' time, You're takin' a chance on me. You're wastin' time, You're takin' a chance on me.
