

Only Wanna Do What's Right

Bryan Duncan

Evil on the left side finds you in the middle.
Everybody's waitin', what you gonna do?
Are you gonna fight it a lot or just a little?
A minute is the difference and it's up to you.
Well, I only wanna do what's right,
I only wanna do what's right for you,
I only wanna do what's right,
For you I only wanna do-do-do-do-do what's right.
Never gonna get a sweeter invitation.
Are you gonna stay or will you run away?
Everybody knows you by your conversation.
They've given you the floor, what you gonna say?
Well, I only wanna do what's right,
I only wanna do what's right for you,
I only wanna do what's right,
For you I only wanna do-do-do-do-do what's right!
Now, good and bad just seem to get so cloudy
When the Devil whispers in your ear.
But you can be forgiven if ya wanna,
But I gotta make one thing clear: do what's right!
I only wanna do what's right, hah!
I only wanna do what's right for you,
I only wanna do what's right,
For you I only wanna do-do-do-do-do what's right!
Wanna do what's right
I only wanna do what's right,
I only wanna do what's right for you,
I only wanna do what's right,
For you I only wanna do-do-do-do-do what's right!
Wanna do what's right
I only wanna so what, do what's right,
I only wanna do what's right
(repeat 2000 times)
