Shameless

Bryan Ferry

I can read your lips
I can read your mind
It's all I want to hear why am I so blind?

And the way we were Fatefully entwined In a shameless world Rock 'n' roll desire

All the things you are In a single word Famously inspired Privately absurd

And the way we were Fatefully entwined In a shameless world Rock 'n' roll desire

And the days go by Morning noon and night Permanently wired To a simple life

And the way we were Fatefully entwined In a shameless world Rock 'n' roll desire
