The Right Stuff

Bryan Ferry

Got your money on the table
And the devil in your eye
Who is that woman with the crooked smile?
You got to go with what you feel

A little loving is a dangerous thing Black is the ocean, a burning sky Her nature's wild, hard to beat the right stuff It's mountain high, river deep the right stuff

Got your pearls on a string and your skin's so bare Over your shoulder there's a world out there You got the nerve, you gonna win Boy you're playing with a dangerous thing

So it goes without saying she's the queen of the Nile Lion woman with the crooked smile You got the nerve, who's gonna win? Boy you're playing with a dangerous thing
