

Subway train

Brygada Kryzys

The night is so cold the wall is so concrete your eyes are so dark when I see U in the street so far from the Clear Light so close to the Dead End surrounded by the Unknown the rest of your time to spend

livin' in a subway train
livin' in a subway train
livin' in a subway train
livin' in a subway...

I know I won't get no far on this cut-off line and don't ask me for no money
'cos ich hab' kein
I know that livin' here gives me no hope hope is not what I need

I'll sell it for some dope
livin' in a subway train
livin' in a subway train
livin' in a subway train
livin' in a subway...

today I saw a boy
he came down to hide from what he hated most:
the World Outside
he knows no way back he's come to stay wish he met another Christ before it's too late

livin' in a subway...
