

Traveling stranger

Brygada Kryzys

I see crashing structures lifeless shapes break there's nothing to regret it's only a big fake face to face with dragons that want to swallow the sun I give'em my body and they start to run
I'm a traveling stranger
and I'm traveling thru' your mind
I'm a traveling stranger
and I'm traveling thru' your mind
I'm a traveling stranger
and I'm traveling thru' your mind
I'm a traveling stranger
and I'm traveling thru' your mind then I see the light shinin' nite and day there ain't no hidden place it could not penetrate lifeless shapes are broken life is everywhere life is everlasting it's what we all share
I'm a traveling stranger
and I'm traveling thru' your mind
I'm a traveling stranger
and I'm traveling thru' your mind
I'm a traveling stranger
and I'm traveling thru' your mind
I'm a traveling stranger
and I'm traveling thru' your mind
