We got off the exit at Wayco Frankie J was on the radio I asked her was she afraid to go All the way with this

She delayed the no
I said baby I jus need to know
If you ain't down
We can turn it around

Your happiness is my happiness
And that's the only thing that's concernin me now
Just hurt me now
She said would you please jus let me talk for once

Then all at once she went into how Shed been tryin to prevent this all for months Not at all because she didn't love me And only me

Its jus that she
Had withheld one vital piece of info
She looked up at me
Wit both eyes full of tears

She said you remember that day at the clinic? I went in wit the doctor and I told you I did it I wasn't able to go through wit it No you didn't

How could you
Wait minute that makes you what?
Three months and some change
Well baby doll that jus ain't enough

To derail us 'cause see that jus means there's three of us But answer this, at what point did you think this topic should be discussed?

I don't know whether to cry or smile

But somehow I'm doin both
But this changes nothin
I got two babies and I solemnly swear to be true to both
