

I Can't Believe

Buck-O-Nine

I can't believe what i'm hearing
I got the news today
Now everybodies talkin'
I wish they'd just "shut up and think"
I can't believe the hatred
In the american people
Is it mental illness
Or simply mass confusion?

You can't judge a man
By the color os his skin
You can't judge a man
By the clothes that he is in

There's racial war
Goin' on out there
And everyone's involved
It just keeps getting worse
Seems like we'll never get it solved
So who will take control
And bring is all together
Cause if no one really cares
It'll be like this forever
