

After You Leave Me

Buck Owens

After you leave me after you're gone I'll sit here crying so blue and alone
And when the door closes I'll close my heart too after you leave me what will I do
After you've taken the beat of my heart after you've torn my world all apart
My life will be worthless here without you after you leave me what will I do

After you've taken...