

Just A Few More Days

Buck Owens

What a joy to meet my Saviour to wear a rose in a crown
To live with him forever in glory to lay my burdens down
Just a few more days to stay in soon I'll join the angel band Friends and loved ones all will greet me there in the promised land
A few more days and I shall see him sitting on a great white th rone
In the presence of the angels Christ will crown his own
Just a few more days...
There in the promised land
