Loving you gave me a heart attack, now I'm this long lost soul left with these empty feelings

Now I'll all I want is just to get you back, cause it's a long life babe and I'll be standing here just to see you fall Are you dealing with a bad connection, broken down from the lov e we lost, stand out, hold up, back off, roll up, drinking, you take me with you even though your done

Loving you gave me a heart attack, now I'm this long lost soul left with these empty feelings
