

Lawless and Lulu

Buckcherry

Everybody dance, oh yeah
Ill do it anytime

Crazy and a nighttime angel, she had a colorful career
Always doing it right, and her laugh was so original
Dealing with a lawless villan, he lacked dicipline and mind
Always smoking the kind, and his thoughts were purly physical, come on, yeah

And now the dreams are near and the conscience clearing
Crazy about your love
Another change of direction and the motivation
King and queen of the nighttime world

Working hard and pounding the pavement, she lacked dicipline and mind
Always doing it right, and her love was so dependable, oh yeah
And now the villan came to terms with, all the wreckage of his past
He was loving his love and his thoughts werepurly beautiful, and you r beautiful

And now the dreams are near and the conscience clearing
Crazy about your love
Another change of direction and the motivation
King and queen of the nighttime world
And now the dreams are near and the conscience clearing
Crazy about your love
Another change of direction and the motivation
King and queen of the nighttime world

Lawless and lulu, everybody sing
Lawless and lulu, and your mama scream
Lawless and lulu, drums
Lawless and lulu, oh yeah

(Lawless and lulu) and now the dreams are near and the conscience clearing
Crazy about your love
(Lawless and lulu) another change of direction and the motivation
King and queen of the nighttime world
(Lawless and lulu) and now the dreams are near and the conscience clearing
Crazy about your love
(Lawless and lulu) another change of direction and the motivation
King and queen of the nighttime world
(Lawless and lulu) oh yeah, oh yeah
You know im crazy about your love
(Lawless and lulu) oh yeah, oh yeah
King and queen of the nighttime world
And now the dreams are near and the conscience clearing
(Lawless and lulu) oh yeah, oh yeah
Leave me the nighttime world
