Buckcherry

The rain keeps falling down shelter me I'm wet, sacred heart is burning there's a princess in my arms

I don't want to waste away tonight a starlight face a party, li ke some time to figure out a link to your eyes and to your mind I wanna be alone this evening too much to hide don't want the w orld to see me, wait till I'm whole and find a place in the sun , and never pick up the phone

My friend keeps stalling he is restless he is scared, lonely he art is turning smell the sweetness in the air
