

Wrath

Buckcherry

Hey, man, do you wanna get official heart
Do you wanna see who's in charge?
I'm gonna show you your future.
Hey man, you think you're strong enough to pay the scheme
It's gonna burn, I'll cast the rain
You're gonna need some suitors.

I got this need, can't be broken
And I'm taking you on this ride.
I got this need, can't be broken
And I keep all my love inside.

Hey, man, do you study your history?
Are you ready for World War III?
Be straight for me, Father.
Hey man, you think you're pretty but you never land
Run your mouth, coming with your friends,
By your selfish and slaughter.

I got this need, can't be broken
And I'm taking you on this ride.
I got this need, can't be broken
And I keep all my love inside.

All I wanna do is make a mess of you
I can't control myself, is this really hell?
I'm doing what is right and now is time to fight
Wanna fight some men, wanna fight some men.

Hey, man, you better build a fucking pyrakane
You're gonna need it cause I'm on my way
I need it more than water.

I got this need, can't be broken
And I'm taking you on this ride.
I got this need, can't be broken
And I keep all my love inside.
