

American Friday Night

Bucky Covington

Cheers from a high school football game on an American Friday night Chorus of the pledge of allegiance
As the red ones rewind the fight

Crowd roars
and the quarterback scores Losing side gets quiet
You can almost hear the high beat of an American Friday night

Hey yeah
the girls look pretty man, they're good to go
boys try to shine like stars on the city
music on the radio
There ain't no place in the whole wide world
that can feel so right Yeah yeah, an American Friday night

Good old boys laughin', back slappin'
on the other side of town
And they only leave behind a couple beauties besides there ain't no worries now They all rock ZZ top as they make their rounds

Yeah that's how good it sounds that's how good it sounds

Hey yeah
music on the radio
that can feel so right
Yeah yeah, an American Friday night
Yeah yeah An American Friday night!

You wanna go to the movies stay home and order dominoes flip a coin and we'll choose we can't loose

Hey yeah girl you look pretty Girl I'm good to go we're gonna shine like stars in the city songs on the radio there ain't no place in the world that can feel this right
yeah yeah an American Friday night
Oh yeah, yes an American Friday night Oh yeah, an American Friday night
