

Wait till Tomorrow

Budgie

I'm gonna take care, can't wait till tomorrow
I'm gonna take care, I need to right now
I'm gonna take care, can't wait till tomorrow
I'm gonna take care, I need to right now

Way too close, she walked past with her blue eyes
Way too close, she pulled me in, old and wise
Her eyes were shining, she looked at me and she came my way
Yeah, like a chiming, It's ringing so hard, I'm amazed

I'm gonna take care, can't wait till tomorrow
I'm gonna take care, can't wait for today
I'm gonna take care, can't wait till tomorrow
I'm gonna take care, I need to right now

Well she touched my heart, and I felt the ripples roll over me
And she touched my heart, I let my eyes rest on you
She has a drag net, I'm being hauled to the hole below
I'm into overflow, this is the way
This is the way it should go
I'm gonna take care

The way a fool goes, I focussed in on my vision now,
The way a fool goes, I have to make up my mind
Acceleration, I saw the look of persuasion now
Acceleration, Don't want to waste,
Don't want to waste any time

I'm gonna take care, can't wait till tomorrow
I'm gonna take care, I need to right now
I'm gonna take care, can't wait till tomorrow
I'm gonna take care, I need to right now

I'm gonna take care, can't wait till tomorrow
I'm gonna take care, I need to right now
I'm gonna take care, can't wait till tomorrow
I'm gonna take care, I need to right now
