

Dancing with Ghosts

Budka Suflera

When you get there and you have time to spare-write me and say that you're okay

Home's not the same--
When you left
you took its name.
Home is us--
Not me alone.

I dance with ghosts now
You know them all.
I'm still in love
With what we were (not what is now)

I live in the past
though we know
memory won't last candle flame-Tomorrow's never the same

----- Break

And yes, I'm still angry at you-- For taking a precious thing that belonged to we two

Leaving me,
you stole something that wasn't only yours-

We made it together
Not two hands, but four.

I believed
we were forever

I believed in nothing more.

Just me alone now dancing
with our ghosts.

Since you left I've learned to be their perfect host.

I be-lieved
we were forever
I be-lieved
in nothing more.

I dance with ghosts now.

You know them all
I'm still in love
With what we were (not what is now)
