Done

Built to Spill

Loneliness is getting hard to perceive Seems it never comes or it never leaves Every day we step into some deceit This should bring the ill-defined to their feet

It's forgiven, it's all for you All your problems will come true Said it once, I'll say it once again This won't make you happy

All I want is you to make up your mind To come on down and linger here for a while All I know is what I wanted to say Disappeared and has yet to be replaced

It's forgiven, it's for you
All your problems will come true
It's already done, it's already done
It's already done
