Raised unright
So uptight
But why blame you?
You wouldn't be if you could choose

Most of the time it's out of site It hit me today
Who gave who the right?
Who took mine away?

What a sight, what a sound What a way to bring people down What a way to bring me down

I know that you'll get yours when you get empty It's so close
I'm sure that you would rather do that than be In your clothes

You must have waited a long time Bet you were disappointed I waited longer than that Just goes to prove

Proving's illogical
But sometimes necessary
Proving's illogical
But it's a cinch

Fa-la-la
Fa-la-la
But why blame you?
You wouldn't be if you could choose

Most of the time it's out of site It hit me today
Who gave who the right?
Who took mine away?

What a sight, what a sound
What a way to bring people down
What a way to bring me down
It goes on and on
