

Untrustable

Built to Spill

You can't trust anyone
Cause you're untrustable
How can you trust someone you know can't trust you
You won't help anyone
Cause you're unusable
No one can tie you down
You're nobody's fool
And I'd love to see it but it's something you just feel
And I'd like to feel it but it just isn't real
And god is whoever you're performing for
And god is whoever you perform for
You don't like anything cause you're unlikable
All because you're not interested in you anymore
It's so unthinkable cause you don't think of it
How many ideas can fit in your reality
And I'd love to see it but it's something you just feel
And I'd like to feel it but it just isn't real
And I'd love to see it but it's something you just feel
And I'd like to feel it but it just isn't real
And god is whoever you're performing for
And god is whoever you perform for
