

Eye Of The Beholder

Buju Banton

Lovely you are da da da da da

Beauty lies in the eyes of the beholder
Can't say that I haven't told ya wanted her to be my baby when she was someone else's lady
beauty lies in the eyes of the beholder
Can't say that I haven't told ya

how could i been so blind wasting so much time it's like casting my perps aswine knowing she could never be mine can't afford to start shaking gotta look her in the eye even though my heart is breaking I can't afford to cry cause she would know I have been watching her from a distance
what she wouldn't know
Of my intentions
so i called out to the waiter to offer her a drink i stopped for a moment then I start to think she would know
I have been watching her from a distance
what she wouldn't know
Of my intentions
then she moved towards the exit she hesitated for a bit turn her eyes in my direction then made a grip
I think she knows
I have been watching her from a distance
pretty lady, could i have a word with you I just want to say
