

Broken

Bullet For My Valentine

Sitting here alone with nothing left to say
Staring at the walls won't make it go away
I need to show the world that I'm alive
I have to break this silence, empty out my lungs

I will be heard
Don't hold me back, don't try to pacify
This might be hard to hear

Don't try and heal me when I'm broken
I need to hurt for me to feel, feel anything
Don't try and fix me when I'm broken
I need to hurt for me to feel, feel anything

I need a darker place to go and find myself
I don't want to hate or live with my regrets
I have to show I'm strong and I'll survive
I need to break this silence, better mark my words

I will be heard
Don't hold me back, don't try to pacify
This might be hard to hear

Don't try and heal me when I'm broken
I need to hurt for me to feel, feel anything
Don't try and fix me when I'm broken
I need to hurt for me to feel, feel anything

I need to break this silence, better mark my words
I will be heard

Staring at the walls won't make it go away

Don't try and heal me when I'm broken
I need to hurt for me to feel, feel anything
Don't try and fix me when I'm broken
I need to hurt for me to feel, feel anything
