

No Control

Bullet For My Valentine

I scream into your face, I scream into your face until,
My veins are bursting through, prisoners that live under my skin,
They call, out my name and anger takes it's hold
It's hold, but it won't stop coz I have no control,
I have no control.

It calls, calls out my name,
It holds, it holds, it holds me down.

I stare into your eyes, I stare into your eyes until,
The tears start to pour rivers down your face I can't ignore,
It calls, out my name and anger takes it's hold,
It's hold, but it won't stop coz I have no control,
I have no control

You say, your way
Was the only way to be.
