

Another wasted breath trying to prove my innocence
I know I've sealed my fate, another lie that brings disgrace
I know you wanna see, see me hurt, make me suffer
But all that's left are all the Broken shattered pieces of our lives

I wish that I could tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin
Beneath my skin
I wanna tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin
Beneath my skin

So come and take my life, let me feel your wickedness
I know I've made mistakes so come and watch me fall from grace
I know you wanna see, see me hurt, make me suffer
I've nothing left so I'll just sacrifice myself to make it right
(To make it right)

I wish that I could tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin
Beneath my skin
I wanna tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin
Beneath my skin

I wanna tell you so you know
I wanna tell you

I guess I've fucked things up
I know it's all my fault
I'm pretty sure that this will be
The death of me

I guess I've fucked things up
I know it's all my fault
I'm pretty sure that this will be
The death of me

I wish that I could tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin
Beneath my skin
I wanna tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin
Beneath my skin

I wish that I could tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin
Beneath my skin
I wanna tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin
Beneath my skin
