

Pay The Price

Bullet

Caught in a web
Gambling with empty hands
Try to fool the one who always stands
For much too long
You've been aiming for the first price
Made a move but you slipped on the rolling dice

Now trouble coming your way
Nowhere to run nowhere to stay
Raising the stakes but you know you will loose
Watch out 'cause hell is catching up on you

Hey you!
Keep on running, don't stop for nothing
Hey you!
Keep on running, or pay the price

Live on the edge
And you won't back down
But if you fall you will end up the clown
No turning back
Now what you gonna do
Listen up because I got news for you

Now trouble coming your way
Nowhere to run nowhere to stay
Acting the man but you know you're a fool
Watch out 'cause hell is catching up on you

Hey you!
Keep on running, don't stop for nothing
Hey you!
Keep on running, or pay the price
