

Behind Your Eyes

BulletProof Messenger

Dreams of winter come alive
This is our world
I swear I saw right through your eyes
And found out an answer

Cause it feels like emptyness to me
Knowing this will end and its not up to me
So close I crawl back to my room
And write out an answer
And I find

That look in your eyes is haunting me
You sneak out your room and we find a scene
Then we kiss and I pull you close so I can
See behind your eyes
But you drift away

Once high hopes now fall behind
Welcome to my world
So you can fall in love for a night
And wakeup without her

I know you're not waiting for me
I know you are all the same and
I don't need this situation
I know you're just playing games but still..
