

The Truth

BulletProof Messenger

It seems to be disasterous
When the walls come tumblin down
But defeat don't come to fast for us
Cause you don't complete me
And you won't defeat me

You can try but you won't defeat me
I don't lie that you won't defeat me
I won't die cause you won't defeat me
Just get back, get back, get back

Just say what you feel
And say what you mean
Don't fear what the truth may have to bring
It may cut you deep but it cuts you clean
So this is your chance to be redeemed

Some say it may be blasfamous
That you keep on tellin these lies
But it happens to the best of us
So don't try to beat me cause you won't defeat me

Just say what you feel and say what you mean
Don't fear that the truth may ruin these things
You're caught in a web created by lies
Don't promise me everythings alright

Cause I'm, so tried of being so shut out
So why cover yourself in so much doubt
Good bye, I'm letting it go
Why try, cause everything will fall back into place
Just get back, get back, get back
