It's on the way
to sunny day
over over now today

It's on the way
to sunny day
over over now today

cause I waste my life
it's all such a beautiful day

So break down the doors, please just put me away I think I've had more than I could ever take Do you really believe that this is your world?
That everyone else is just livin' in-

(your rules aren't made for me)
Your rules aren't meant for me

And though in time we change
I realize the shame
Cause I waste my life
it's all such a beautiful day
I step to the edge and scream it away
Cause I waste my life
it's all such a beautiful day

Your precious connection is fading away
My antennae is down, I can't communicate.
Are you speaking in tongues, can you even relate?
Why don't you just tell me what you really hate?

(your rules aren't made for me)
Your rules aren't meant for me

And though in time we change
I realize the shame
Cause I waste my life
it's all such a beautiful day
I step to the edge and scream it away
Cause I waste my life
it's all such a beautiful day

I never say what I truly mean I never say anything
I'll never say (I'll never say)
I'll never say (I'll never say)
And tell you anything

And though in time we change
I realize the shame
Cause I waste my life
it's all such a beautiful day
I step to the edge and scream it away
Cause I waste my life
it's all such a beautiful day
