You see me from your blood filled eyes

And you judge

I can't take this, you're like a wrecking ball through hell

I can't take this, you're like a wrecking ball through hell

Then you ripped my heart out

You see me from your blood filled eyes

And you judge

My life means nothing

To you I'm worthless, no warmth just darkness from your heart

Am I still nothing?

You're bleeding, you're seeing me

Fuck!
