

We Won't Live Forever

Burn Halo

We're broken down on our knees
Broken down for all to see
Broken down nowhere to go

Not a prayer
Not a hope
Not a prayer to ever know
What the sun feels like
What it is to be alive

1, 2, 3, Go!

We won't live forever
We won't take it anymore
And the silence will be broken
We won't live forever
We won't take it anymore
And the silence will be broken here once more

We're broken down, price to pay
Broken down another day
Broken down a life on hold

Lost our minds
Torn apart
Can't find a way to make this ours
Look into these eyes
Now it's time we come alive

1, 2, 3, Go!

We won't live forever
We won't take it anymore
And the silence will be broken
We won't live forever
We won't take it anymore
And the silence will be broken here once more

We don't know where we go
It's still in our souls
Nowhere to turn to
When will we give in? Yeah!

We won't live forever
We won't take it anymore
And the silence will be broken
We won't live forever
We won't take it anymore
And the silence will be broken here once more
