

Sleeping With The Enemy

Burn Season

As the sun falls away for the night to begin
A hunger is building and it's crawling in my skin
I've got this addiction, I've got a disease
That's taking me over but I know it sets me free
Know it sets me free

Hungry for the pain and for the thrill
Thirsty but you cannot save yourself
Alone and empty, naked and filthy
Face it, you're sleeping with the enemy
(Sleeping) (Enemy)
(Sleeping with the enemy)

The violence is sexual, the pleasure is pain
The moon is a savior and the stars light the way
I've got an infection, I got this belief
You're loosing control and it's everything you need

Hungry for the pain and for the thrill
Thirsty but you cannot save yourself
Alone and empty, naked and filthy
Face it, you're sleeping with the enemy

Hungry for the pain and for the thrill
Thirsty but you cannot save yourself
Alone and empty, naked and filthy
Face it, you're sleeping with the enemy
(Sleeping with the enemy)
Sleeping with the enemy
Hungry
(Sleeping) (Enemy)
(Sleeping with the enemy)
The violence is sexual, the pleasure is pain
The moon is a savior and the stars light the way
