

Alternative Teenage Suicide

Burning Brides

I see you swinging through the air on a vine I feel awake and I waste a smile I like a soldier in the deadly sun who ain't afraid to cock a loaded gun

in Vietnam

I know we're deep inside the enemy line and that I could've picked a much better time but you're the one who makes me feel more punk and why I've come to love the loveless junk

in Vietnam

behind the cover of the camouflage behind the glory of a losing cause there is a soldier in the deadly sun

go go ready to go
